

RUSH PHOTOS – June 2, 2003

- Royal Vancouver Yacht Club – looking south from the Regatta's venue, the Breakwater
 - Don't miss the spectacular Breakwater/downtown Vancouver view in the newspaper The Daily Breeze Issue 1, Tuesday June 2, 2003 with John Cole-Cook front & center

- June 2nd, evening supper on the Porch at RVYC photo – Annabelle Martin
 - David Coode, Don Martin, Diana Valiela, ??, Alfonso Moreno, Trevor Binks, Ken Binks, Barbara Carstensen, Lester Gilbert, John Cole-Cook, Anne Cole-Cook, Peter Van Rossem, Lana Butler

- Same group as prior photo but Annabelle Martin's peeking out of the middle and Barbara's missing because she took the photo

- View of Vancouver City Hall, Science World, Cambie St Bridge, False Creek east end, and spectacular residential area just southwest of the downtown area. Science World is on the route of the Regatta's Vancouver Tour on Wednesday for those who aren't practising for Thursday's 1st Race!
 - Science World 's building is from EXPO 86; a spectacular building housing an amazing assortment of science exhibits for all ages.
 - Website is awesome: <http://www.scienceworld.bc.ca/newsite/info/>
