

ROYAL VANCOUVER YACHT CLUB

INFORMATION FOR PROSPECTIVE JUNIOR DIVISION MEMBERS

In conjunction with the operation of the Club, there shall be maintained a special group between the ages of seven (7) and eighteen (18) years for the training of young people in sailing, sea lore, seamanship, safety at sea, and general recreation to be known as the Junior Division. Participants in this program shall be subject to such rules, regulations and fees as the Board of Directors may from time to time prescribe.

This group shall be administered under the direction of an Honorary Juniors' Advisor and its own administrative committee, as prescribed by the Board of Directors of the Club.

- a) A participant in the activities of the Junior Division shall, upon attaining the age of nineteen (19) years, become entitled for Intermediate membership in the Club. Intermediate membership is available only to former participants in the Junior Division. (No additional Entrance Fee will be required.)
- b) An Intermediate member who has been a member for one year or more may apply at any time to become an Active member by submitting a written application to the Board of Directors. Upon attaining the age of twenty-six (26), an Intermediate member will become an Active member.
- c) Intermediate members shall have the same privilege of becoming Non-Resident members as Active members.
- d) Junior and Intermediate members may apply for moorage pursuant to Section 3 of the Mooring Rules and Regulations. However, on obtaining moorage, if the member is a Junior they shall pay the dues equivalent to those of an Active Member and if the member is an Intermediate they shall apply for Active status in the regular manner as set out in Bylaw 38.

Procedures conducted in order to obtain Junior Division Membership in Royal Vancouver Yacht Club.

1. If the Applicant's parents are RVYC members, the parent with Active membership can sign the application and the Entrance Fee may be debited to their account.
2. If the Applicant's parents are NOT RVYC members, a cheque covering the Entrance Fee and GST must accompany the Application for Membership, along with a reference letter from a coach, teacher, or another adult for applicants who are 12 years old and older.
3. The Entrance Fee is based on the age of the Applicant when the application form is received in the office so long as the interview for membership takes place within 6 months of submitting the application.
4. The completed application may be mailed, emailed, or brought into the Jericho office.
5. Interviews with the Applicants and Honorary Juniors' Advisor (or Director at Large, Intermediates and Juniors) are arranged monthly. The Applicant will be advised of the date and time of the next scheduled interview. If circumstances prevent the Applicant from attending the interview, the application will be delayed until the following interview.
6. Following the interview, the Director at Large, Intermediates and Juniors will present the Junior Applications at the next available meeting of the Board of Directors.
7. The Applicant will be notified by email if the application for Junior Membership has been approved by the Board of Directors. This is usually the first of the month following the interview.
8. The interview may be conducted on an individual basis but is typically conducted in a group with all of the current applicants present. The interview will provide a short orientation and then a question period where the applicant will answer questions and may ask questions. RVYC parents may be present but are not required. Attendance of one parent at the interview is suggested for parents who are not members of RVYC.

Junior dues are $377.96 plus GST per year (comprising membership dues, capital assessment and capital dues), billed each December and pro-rated in accordance with Membership commencement date.
